STREET STORIES

With a maximum temperature Sunday of 49 degrees, the minimum this morning went as low as 26 degrees.

Several automobile owners were before the mayor this morning, charged with exceeding the speed limit. Some were able to convince the judge that they were not violating the law, while others merely entered pleas of guilty, paid up, and departed.

W. W. Graham died at the Hardy sanitarium Saturday afternoon, the result of an old gunshot wound received about three years ago. The remains were shipped to Wilson for burial yesterday morning and the funeral was held at that place yesterday afternoon. Deceased for the past two years has resided on E street, southeast.

Frank Woodmansee, representing the Reliance Oil company of El Reno was in the city today. Mr. Woodmansee is in close touch with the oil business and predicts that within two years the Healdton field will double the population of Ardmore and urges that adequate hotel facilities be the next consideration for the Chamber of Commerce, as they will need them.

Another "dip" was landed in the county jail yesterday afternoon, when Deputies Harris and Brooks went to Wirt and arrested P. H. Key, whom it is alleged, got his hand into Pike Davis' pocket and abstracted therefrom $35 in cash. Deputy Harris was looking up the records in the office today, and says he is of the opinion that Key is wanted somewhere else. He has been living at Wirt for some time, and has done some work in the oil fields.

Freeman of this city, assisted by Bishop Brooks, with interment in Rose Hill cemetery. The active pall bearers will be Don Lacy, Henry Baum, Dave Daube, Max Westheimer, W. A. Colley, Claude Stubblefield. Honorary pall bearers, Dr. Adams, Charles Milner, F. J. Ramsey, D. J. Grigsby, G. P. Cobb, J. B. Moore.

Mr. Scivally was one of the county's best business men, and had accumulated much of the world's goods. He was friendly with everybody and his loss will be keenly felt throughout this section of the state. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family and friends in their sad bereavement.

Deceased was a member of the Methodist church, and was an Odd Fellow.

Had a Reason.

A well-known actor, while in a tailor shop one day, happened to notice a man come in, pick up a suit, pay for it and go out again. "At last," he said, "there's one fellow I will never imitate."
